Advanced Dungeons & Dragons

Special Announcement

Wizards of the Coast will be releasing 3rd Edition Dungeons & Dragons later this year, at GenCon in July/August, I believe. This will replace the currently Advanced Dungeons & Dragons system. ## MASTER OF ORION II

MIC
 This game has gone straight to being my No. 1 favorite space colonization and conquest game. No other game even begins to compare. You can start with just one planet with low tech, and then expand your colony while developing tech. Soon you build simple starships and visit the neighboring star systems, some with alien ships to subdue them. There are thirteen different alien races, including insects (my favorite, who produce very efficiently), subterranean, psions, humans, etc. When you meet other players you can ally them, conquer them (and you don't have to exterminate their populations - at last! You can simply stock your marines on the planet and the aliens give you) or you can form trade or tech research agreements. I made an alliance with one computer opponent and he never once backstabbed me, nor he him. There are hundreds of tech levels and fields to develop, eventually letting you build over thirty different structures on your colonies - and this is my favorite part. There are many different types of worlds, volcanic, desert, water, rich, and the graphics are completely stunning and mesmerizing. And as you later terraform and soil enhance these worlds, their appearances change. And the music is so relaxing and peaceful, that one of my friends falls asleep playing this game. I find the game relaxing and fulfilling. IBM Requires: 486/100+, 8mbRAM, SVGA, hard disk, CD-ROM, soundcard. $30.00

QUAKE II

idSoftware
 This is the best Doom/Quake game I've ever seen. For starters, the game is actually playable. Without using any cheats or even a hint book, I have been able to solve every level - you don't have to find secrets in order to progress to the next level. The game contains many missions, with each mission containing from two to ten levels each. So far I've completed around 50 levels/complexes and the end is still nowhere in sight. Graphics are stunning, game play is totally satisfying. What you do in one level can affect another one. Features superior artificial intelligence. Enemies, which are mostly combat cyborgs, can evade your attack, strategically position themselves for snipers, and shoot you down. Hear distant explosions, rockets flying past your head. Shortly after landing on an alien planet you learn that hundreds of your men have been reduced to just a few. Now you must fight your way through heavily fortified military installations, lower the city's defenses and shut down the enemy's war machine. Only then will the fate humanity be known. And to play this game you must have your Regional Settings (found in the Control Panel directory) set to English-Australian. IBM Requires: Win '95, Pentium 90, 16mbRAM, SVGA card, 4spCD-ROM. $30.00

The world has been warped by evil influences, and has volumetric fog, specular lighting; there are 30 different chambers, each with various traps and weapons. Ten different weapons. Internet play is a real buzz. IBM Requires: Pen 233 with 8mbSVGA or Pen 166 with 4mbSVGA, 64mbRAM, 4spCD-ROM. IBM - $90.00

Babylon 5 Videos

We now stock the full range of currently available Babylon 5 Videos, by Warner Home Video. (I own all the videos myself!) The Babylon 5 series focuses on an ancient, evil race that gathers together in the shadows, once it has been accidentally reawakened by a curious human survey team. Meanwhile, another equally ancient race helps to prepare the younger races to prepare for the return of this evil menace. The entire series is packed full of mysteries that will be revealed to you eventually, though you will have to watch some episodes as much as four times to spot all the cleverly hidden clues. I used to be a die-hard Trek, but once I realised that a brilliant continuous plot line linked all the Babylon 5 episodes together, I defected!

Each tape has either a double episode, or two 45 minute episodes.

We are proud to announce that we are now offering the entire Eureka Miniatures range. Simply buy this catalog, have a look at the photos, and order the codes from us as per usual, pay for the titles according to the price code at the beginning of the catalog, and we will send the items to you. Please note that most items ordered from the Eureka Miniatures catalog may take one week for delivery (or longer if it is a really big order. All Eureka orders are cast-up specially for us, and normally delivered to us on the following Monday.) ## BATTLE HONORS

By Tony Barton

These are the best Polybian/Camilian/Republican 15mm Romans I have seen. I took one look at the figures, and immediately hunted down the supplier in England, bought myself the army, and decided to run the figures in this catalog too. All the shields are separate, as are most of the pilum and spears. Stick the shields at slightly different angles, and the figures look alive. (Minimum order is ten packs. Allow three weeks for delivery.)

Spearhead

QUA SPEARHEAD

The emphasis is on commanding a multi-battalion force, and all game mechanics serve that priority. Each model or stand of infantry represents a platoon. National differences are reflected. The key reasons for the German tactical superiority lay in their fighting system and training, not in better equipment. In Spearhead, the German player controls a flexible system which can adapt more easily to the ever changing battlefield. Conversely, a Russian player employs a less flexible command structure. In this game, players must plan their battle carefully, because they cannot change bad plans quickly. ## HAR RAVEN FANTASY MINIATURES RULES

It is the beginning of the Fourth Age. A time wracked with turmoil, a time of change. Alliances which held fast for centuries have dissolved. Technology and magic are on the advance. Gnomish engineers working with dwarves have harnessed the power of steam. Shadow elves continue to spread terror throughout the land and the migration southwards of the Barnorsk orc forces is proving to be a matter of concern to all. This rules are 144 pages and fully illustrated with complete battle rules, army lists, background info, spell grimoires and color guide to every miniature produced by Harlequin Miniatures.

This is a game of tactics. The races covered are the Vardulak Vampire Masters of the Drakul Knights, Wood Elves, Shadow Elves, High Elves, Barbarians, Barnorsk Orcs, Undead, Kustoss Orcs, Kzar, Helsingians, Ver'men, Beastmen, Dwarfs, Saracens, Goblins, Nightlings and the bestiary. $30.00

Hordes of the Things

WRG HORDES OF THE THINGS
A 40 page book of fast play fantasy miniatures rules, using a system very similar to DBA. All armies consist of 24 points, and can include the troop types aerial hero, god, dragon, paladin, behemoth, magicians, heroes, airboats, artillery, sneakers, clerics, flyers, riders, beasts, blades, spears, shooters, warhounds, hordes, and lurkers. Large battles can be played, simply by adding further generals, each of which commands 24 points. The average 24 point army will include 24 - 36 figures. Combat is very similar to DBA and DBM, and the game is extremely fast moving and easy to learn. Hordes are done in a novel way. If one is eliminated, the next turn you can replace it by spending one command pip. It arrives in your stronghold or back board edge. $16.00

WARMASTER

WARMASTER

Games Workshop's new mass combat battle system for the Warhammer Fantasy world. The scale is 10mm, and troops are based several figures to a stand. Several stands make up a unit. In combat, each stand has a number of attack dice for close combat, and if it has ranged weapons, for shooting as well. Stands commonly take up to 3 hits, but a giant or dragon may take 6 to 8 hits. These hits are recorded by placing dice behind the stand. Some stands also have an armor saving throw. Shooting or close combat achieves a hit on a 4+ per attack dice thrown, but is further modified by charges, pursuit attacks, terrifying enemies, confused troops. The command system is elegant, with each commander being able to continue issuing orders until he fails to roll under his command value. This value receives a -1 deduction after each command issued & by other command penalties. The rules also cover magic spells, sieges, fortresses, battle honors, ships, eight different battlefield scenarios, complete army lists for Empire, Undead, Chaos, Orcs, High Elves and Dwarves. And, the miniatures are cheap! $31.50

CEE Earthforce Sourcebook

This enlightening supplement for The Babylon Project also contains a complete set of simple miniatures rules for Babylon 5, written by Jon Tuffey, who wrote Full Thrust. As such the rules are simple to learn, but tactics are very hard to master! The rules are magnificent, and you can easily control six ships each plus fighters. This is the game system for me! The book contains counters for all the above ships and fighters, but I will be using the below miniatures. Special - $5.00

AOG Babylon 5 Fleet Action

About time. A brand new miniatures rules set that let you use 30 capital ships and 100 fighters per side, rather than just 3 cap ships and 12 fighters. With fast play mechanics, multi-phase movement system, reinforcements during play, new control sheets, and all designed for the new Fleet Action figures. Due May. $59.95

Full Thrust

GZG FULL THRUST 2nd Ed

A beautiful production of tactical starship combat rules, on glossy paper filled with B&W photos of model spaceships and diagrams. The basic rules on their own will give a very simple, fast game which absolutely no complications, even when using big fleets. Once you are familiar with the basics, various parts or all of the Advanced rules can be added. No ships can fire into their aft quadrant (except against fighters) due to the distortion field caused by the ship's engines. This has a profound effect on tactics and manoeuvring. There is great satisfaction to be had by getting up behind a Dreadnought with your cruiser and letting it have all batteries straight up the Drive Tubes, and the 'H@# can't shoot back!' This ruling makes players think much harder about the relative position of their ships, requiring the use of escorts to cover these blind spots of the bigger ships. At the beginning of each turn players write down their movement for that turn, and both players then carry out the plotted movement - so you really need to try to outguess your opponent. Also includes complete ship construction and costings rules, background detail & expanded ship stats. $25.00

Full Thrust Fleet Book Volume 1: Warships of the Major Powers This volume covers major warship classes of the four main powers of the Third Solar War period, NAC, ESU, NSL and FSE. Has complete game stats for those Full Thrust miniatures - over 60 pregenerated designs, including generic freighters and support ships. Also has new and updated rules, new weapons, revised ship design, and simplified vector movement system. $30.00

Warhammer 40,000

GAM WARHAMMER 40,000 3rd Edition

The all new, completely revised 3rd Edition Warhammer 40,000 is out now! The easiest way to explain the revisions is that Warhammer 40,000 is no longer a skirmish (squad) level game, with 2,000 point Space Marine armies having only around 20 figures and a couple of vehicles. The new rules play a lot quicker and smoother, allowing much bigger armies. This is done by streamlining the game system in many ways: movement rates have been generalised; overwatch has been scrapped; each race instead has its own unique warfare list instead of cards; powerful characters are toned down considerably; your psyker can perform one psychic power in your turn if he can roll under his leadership (so psykers don't dominate the game anymore either - about time); vehicles are easier to destroy; points costs should be about half what they were before; army lists are completely different now. Other rules have also been streamlined, such as shooting, taking wounds, penetrating armor, saving throws, hand-to-hand combat, and units breaking. There are modifiers to break tests such as -4 if outnumbered 4 to 1. Units break a lot faster than before. And no more sustained fire dice, heavy weapons may fire from 1 to 3 times, depending on the weapon. The game comes with a 288 page rulebook, which includes army lists for Space Marines, Dark Eldar, Tyranid Hive Fleets, Eldar Craftworlds, Chaos Space Marines, Imperial Guard, Orks, Sisters of Battle, and Heroes of the Imperium. These army lists are complete, but don't have any special characters. Over the next couple of years, Games Workshop will re-release up to 32 Codex Army List books, which will include the special characters. The game includes a new plastic landspeeder, 10 space marines with separate arms, weapons, heads: 20 Dark Eldar with separate arms, weapons, heads: 2 buildings, several palm trees, thick transparent plastic weapon templates, 288 page rulebook. $119.95

NFD254 MagEyes Hands Free Magnifier

WEL Magtags - Adhesive Magnets (100 x 4cm x 2cm)
 Having trouble trying to carry your miniatures around without them bouncing around? Well, here's the best answer possible. Each sheet of MagTags has 100 sticky, flat magnets, which you can peel off and stick underneath your miniatures, whether an element of figures used in DMB and the like, or a single fantasy or sci-fi figure. If the 4cm x 2cm size is not what you need, it cuts easily with a Stanley knife or even a razor blade. Then buy yourself a metal tool box and just place the figures mounted on MagTags in the box, and they stick! (Note, large, heavy figures like metal mechs or monsters which have a small base diameter would not suit this method.) A figure like a Citadel mounted figure may require one and a half magnets. $8.00

JED Thick Figure-Basing Cardboard We have perfect cardboard for basing your figures on, especially for DBM and non-Citadel figures that do not come with a base. The cardboard is 2mm thick, with a textured black surface on one side, which is perfect if you need to put some form of modelling clay down before you stick on the figures. The cardboard is two feet wide and almost two feet long. (Actually, the cardboard is old Russian Campaign mapboards!) $3.50

MILLIPUT

We now have a new source of Milliput - which means that each stick is fresh and soft. Milliput is a versatile putty which adheres to and will seal or bond metals, wood, plastic, glass, brick or cement; it can be sculpted and when it goes rock hard in two to three hours, it can be turned, sawn, drilled, tapped, filed, sandpapered, or painted; it can be used for mould making and can be cast.

Paint Brushes

We've managed to pick up a great range of cheap, beautiful paint brushes, by Franchville. There are two types, pure sable, and the others are high quality white taklon that wash and keep very well. All brushes are a dream to use. I thoroughly recommend getting one of each size, as this will ensure you have a brush for every model job required.

Black Wash

One of my secrets to a great paint job. I use Ral Partha acrylic paints to give a basic paint job to all of my 15mm ancient, medieval and even 25mm Warhammer 40,000 figures - without using any shading. Leave the figures at least 6 hours to dry. Then I mix about 1 part Revell Matt Black Enamel to about 20 to 25 parts Revell Matt Varnish Enamel, and then paint the figures thickly with this black wash. The black washes into all the creases and lines to give a beautiful job that looks like I've spent hours painting the figures. For 15mm figures, this black wash completes them. For Warhammer 40,000 figures I then highlight all raised surfaces with lighter colors than I used with the basic paint job.
